

DAY 8 QUIZ QUESTIONS

Question 1 (1 point)

Which statement about group health insurance policies is CORRECT?

Question 1 options:

Coverage from an occupational accident cannot be excluded.

Coverage for newborn children can be excluded.

Coverage for VA hospital treatment cannot be excluded.

Coverage for handicapped children may be provided.

Question 2 (1 point)

Which of the following is NOT correct concerning policy limitations and exclusions?

Question 2 options:

Pre-existing conditions or diseases are acceptable

Alcoholism and drug addiction are acceptable

The insurer can exclude Alzheimer's disease

Participation in a felony, riot or insurrection

Question 3 (1 point)

Which of the following applies to a health policy that is optional under the NAIC Uniform Provisions Law?

Question 3 options:

Change of Occupation

Entire Contract

Physical Exam & Autopsy

Time Limit on Certain Defenses

Question 4 (1 point)

Choose the service or treatment that a group health insurance policy would NOT be required to provide coverage.

Question 4 options:

Qualified services completed in an ambulatory surgical center

Outpatient services that would have been covered if rendered for an inpatient

Specific services by a licensed ophthalmologists

Treatment for work-related illness or injury

Question 5 (1 point)

Which of the following statements is NOT true?

Question 5 options:

The agent is responsible for completing the application.

An insurer may cancel or not renew for diagnosis of HIV/AIDS but may not cancel or not renew for treatment of HIV/AIDS.

A long-term care policy can have an elimination period for up to 180 days

An applicant shall be notified of a positive test result of HIV/AIDS by the agent within 10 days.

Question 6 (1 point)

Under the NAIC Uniform Provisions Law, which of the following is optional for a health policy?

Question 6 options:

Change of Occupation

Entire Contract

Physical Exam & Autopsy

Time Limit on Certain Defenses

Question 7 (1 point)

Which of the following statements is true?

Question 7 options:

An insurer may not cancel or not renew for diagnosis of HIV/AIDS, but it may cancel or not renew for treatment of HIV/AIDS.

An insurer may cancel or not renew for diagnosis of HIV/AIDS but may not cancel or not renew for treatment of HIV/AIDS.

An insurer may cancel or not renew for diagnosis or treatment of HIV/AIDS.

An insurer may not cancel or not renew for diagnosis or treatment of HIV/AIDS.

Question 8 (1 point)

Which of the following claims does not apply?

Question 8 options:

The agent is responsible for completing the application.

An insurer may cancel or not renew for diagnosis of HIV/AIDS but may not cancel or not renew for treatment of HIV/AIDS.

A long-term care policy can have an elimination period for up to 180 days

An applicant shall be notified of a positive test result of HIV/AIDS by the agent within 10 days.

Question 9 (1 point)

The purpose of ERISA is to _____.

Question 9 options:

override state insurance laws

replace state insurance laws protect the rights of workers who are injured on the job protect the rights of workers covered under an employer-sponsored plan

Question 10 (1 point)

Which of the following claims regarding group health insurance plans is TRUE?

Question 10 options:

Coverage from an occupational accident cannot be excluded.

Coverage for newborn children can be excluded.

Coverage for VA hospital treatment cannot be excluded.

Coverage for handicapped children may be provided.

Question 11 (1 point)

Which of the following would NOT be covered by a general policy?

Question 11 options:

A group of pharmacists

A school bus covering the children riding it

A neighborhood playground

An airline covering its passengers

Question 12 (1 point)

Rebates for Wellness Program Participation may not exceed _____ of paid premiums.

Question 12 options:

50%

30%

25%

10%

Question 13 (1 point)

Regarding the insurer's duty to the applicant for HIV testing, which of the following is FALSE?

Question 13 options:

The insurer must disclose its intent to test a person for HIV prior to testing for HIV/AIDS.

The insurer must get the person's written consent to administer the test.

The insurer must notify the insured of any positive results.

The insurer may inquire whether a person has been tested positive for exposure to the HIV infection.

Question 14 (1 point)

Which of the following DOES NOT have to be included in a group health insurance policy requirement under Florida law?

Question 14 options:

Group health policies must provide coverage for mental and nervous disorders.

A newborn infant is covered from the moment of birth.

Coverage must be provided for a handicapped child who is a family member until he or she reaches the age of 25.

Group health policies must provide coverage for a newborn infant of a covered family member until the infant reaches 18 months of age.

Question 15 (1 point)

Participation in the Florida Healthy Kids Corporation is on a _____ basis.

Question 15 options:

mandatory

as needed

recommended

voluntary

Question 16 (1 point)

What type of coverage is typically available under a family health policy?

Question 16 options:

Adopted children

Stepchildren

Foster children

All of the above

Question 17 (1 point)

Which of the following is not correct concerning the insurer's obligation to the applicant regarding HIV testing?

Question 17 options:

The insurer must disclose its intent to test a person for HIV prior to testing for HIV/AIDS.

The insurer must get the person's written consent to administer the test.

The insurer must notify the insured of any positive results.

The insurer may inquire whether a person has been tested positive for exposure to the HIV infection.

Question 18 (1 point)

Which of these claims about the following is true?

Question 18 options:

An insurer may not cancel or not renew for diagnosis of HIV/AIDS, but it may cancel or not renew for treatment of HIV/AIDS.

An insurer may cancel or not renew for diagnosis of HIV/AIDS but may not cancel or not renew for treatment of HIV/AIDS.

An insurer may cancel or not renew for diagnosis or treatment of HIV/AIDS.

An insurer may not cancel or not renew for diagnosis or treatment of HIV/AIDS.

Question 19 (1 point)

Which of the following is NOT a provision that is required by Florida law for group health insurance policies?

Question 19 options:

Group health policies must provide coverage for mental and nervous disorders.

A newborn infant is covered from the moment of birth.

Coverage must be provided for a handicapped child who is a family member until he or she reaches the age of 25.

Group health policies must provide coverage for a newborn infant of a covered family member until the infant reaches 18 months of age.

Question 20 (1 point)

Which statement below does NOT indicate landmark cases and laws involving the regulation of insurance?

Question 20 options:

When an applicant's consumer or credit history is being investigated, insurers are required to disclose this information to the applicant.

The NAIC has standing committees working regularly to examine numerous aspects of the insurance industry.

The Federal Trade Commission (FTC) directly supervises the marketing techniques of all insurance companies.

The McCarran-Ferguson Act laid the basis for our current understanding that state governments are the primary regulators of the insurance industry.

Question 21 (1 point)

Rules pertaining to testimonials, statistics, and special offers would be found in _____.

Question 21 options:

- the policy summary
- the entire contract
- the Advertising Code
- the Buyers Guide

Question 22 (1 point)

Reinsurers are a specialized branch of the insurance industry. This is because they insure _____.

Question 22 options:

- insurers
- employers with high risk

applicants from Lloyds of London

applicants with low risk

Question 23 (1 point)

A life insurance company organized in Wisconsin, with an office in Pittsburgh, and licensed to sell insurance in Florida is a _____.

Question 23 options:

domestic company

alien company

foreign company

regional company

Question 24 (1 point)

Jordan works as an underwriter for a mid sized insurance company in Florida. His company recently issued several large commercial policies and now wants to reduce its exposure to potential high value claims. To accomplish this, the company decides to transfer part of its risk to another entity that specializes in assuming portions of insurers' liabilities.

Which group does this specialized entity—known as a reinsurer—primarily insure?

Question 24 options:

Individual policyholders

Government agencies

Insurance companies

Independent insurance agents

Question 25 (1 point)

At what time must an insurable interest exist in life and health contracts?

Question 25 options:

After the policy is issued

Before the beneficiary is named

While the policy is enforced

At the inception of the policy

Question 26 (1 point)

Which of the following is a "take it or leave it" type of contract?

Question 26 options:

Aleatory

Unilateral

Conditional

Adhesion

Question 27 (1 point)

What type of authority is not overtly extended but must be used to enable the agent to transact business of the principle?

Question 27 options:

Express

Implied

Apparent

Fiduciary

Question 28 (1 point)

Which of the following is a contract where only one party is liable in court?

Question 28 options:

Aleatory

Unilateral

Conditional

Adhesion

Question 29 (1 point)

Which of the following is an example of a STOLI?

Question 29 options:

Brenda takes out a policy on her sister Pam.

Emanuel takes out a policy on his employees.

An investor has Catherine, 78, to take out a policy and names herself as the beneficiary.

Destiny takes out a policy on her mother, Ann.

Question 30 (1 point)

All of the following are part of the Home Office underwriting process EXCEPT_____.

Question 30 options:

credit report

Medical Information Bureau report

applicant's analyst report

inspection report

Question 31 (1 point)

What is a deceptive sales presentation?

Question 31 options:

Any presentation that gives the prospect the wrong impression about any aspect of an insurance policy

Any presentation that does not provide complete disclosure

Any presentation that includes any misleading or inconclusive product comparison

All of these are correct.

Question 32 (1 point)

If the agent states mutual funds are the same as variable universal life insurance, this would be considered _____.

Question 32 options:

twisting

misrepresentation replacement

rebating

Question 33 (1 point)

The producer should educate the applicant on all the following EXCEPT _____.

Question 33 options:

the need for accuracy and honesty meanings of various terms such as waiver of premiums, etc.

why information is required

how the DFS works with the CFO

Question 34 (1 point)

An objective of the National Association of Insurance Commissioners is to _____.

Question 34 options:

- promote federal legislation of the insurance industry
- encourage uniformity in state insurance laws and regulations
- develop continuing education courses for insurance producers
- create model insurance policies for adoption by insurers

Question 35 (1 point)

Which of the following is not an example of an indemnity contract?

Question 35 options:

- Subrogation
- Health insurance policies
- Property and casualty
- Disability Income

Question 36 (1 point)

What type of health insurance contract would agree to pay a stated amount each month to the insured if he or she becomes totally disabled?

Question 36 options:

Participating contracts

Valued contracts

Inclusive contracts

Reimbursement contracts

Question 37 (1 point)

All of the following are valued contracts except:

Question 37 options:

Life insurance policies

AD&D policies

Disability income policies

Long-term care

Question 38 (1 point)

Which premium mode is least expensive?

Question 38 options:

Annual

Semiannual

Quarterly

Monthly

Question 39 (1 point)

What does an insurance company set aside to pay future claims?

Question 39 options:

Valued contracts

Indemnity contracts

Reserves

Master contracts

Question 40 (1 point)

Why are HMOs a distinct form of health care provider?

Question 40 options:

They are popular for large groups of employers.

They provide financing for the health care plus the health care itself.

They provide a large variety of options.

The doctors operate on a fee for service arrangement.

Question 41 (1 point)

All of the following statements concerning Social Security disability benefits are true EXCEPT:

Question 41 options:

The impairment must be expected to last at least 12 months.

The waiting period is 5 months.

The waiting period may be waived in certain circumstances.

Benefits are retroactive to the time of disability.

Question 42 (1 point)

Grouping small businesses together to obtain group insurance as one large group is characteristic of which of the following?

Question 42 options:

A Health Maintenance Organization (HMO)

A Franchise Health plan

A Multiple Employer Trust (MET)

A Fictitious group

Question 43 (1 point)

Choose the individual who is most likely to qualify for Social Security disability benefits.

Question 43 options:

Randy, a ski instructor who breaks his leg

Sarah, who is sick from a viral infection and is not expected to be able to work for the next 6 months

Perry, a mechanic who loses his dominant hand in an accident

Grace, who experiences serious early-onset Alzheimer's and is unable to remember how to get to work

Question 44 (1 point)

What is the waiting period before someone can qualify for Social Security disability benefits?

Question 44 options:

3 months

5 months

6 months

12 months

Question 45 (1 point)

In a health insurance policy, which term describes a situation where a policyowner has medical benefits assigned or paid directly to the hospital or physician?

Question 45 options:

Collateral assignment

Absolute assignment

Transfer assignment

Right of assignment

Question 46 (1 point)

Deductible provisions are common in medical insurance policies. Which statement about the deductible provision is NOT correct?

Question 46 options:

They help to eliminate small claims.

They provide that initial expenses up to a specified amount are to be paid by the insured.

They are most common in basic medical expense policies.

They help to hold down premium rates.

Question 47 (1 point)

Which of the following is the most common type of co-insurance in a major medical policy?

Question 47 options:

5 and 10%

10 and 15%

20 and 25%

25 and 30%

Question 48 (1 point)

Which of the following statements about health reimbursement accounts (HRAs) is correct?

Question 48 options:

HRAs are established by the employer.

HRAs are established by the employee.

HRAs are established with after-tax dollars.

HRAs are the least common of high deductible health plans.

Question 49 (1 point)

Jackie is covered under a hospital expense policy. Based on what you know about this plan, what type of plan is this?

Question 49 options:

Service

Limited

Fixed-rate plan

Special risk

Question 50 (1 point)

The determination of the cost of a surgical procedure based on the location or general area where the procedure will take place is known as _____.

Question 50 options:

reasonable and customary approach charges

stated charges

percentage of stated charges

designated charges

Question 51 (1 point)

Which type of coverage premium is least affected by an increase in medical costs?

Question 51 options:

Basic Medical Expense

Hospital Indemnity

Comprehensive Medical

Major Medical

Question 52 (1 point)

Lorenzo had a disability income policy with an "accidental means" definition. He jumped into a river and broke his back leaving him paralyzed. What course of action would the insurance company take?

Question 52 options:

The policy should pay the full amount since Lorenzo's accident was not planned.

The policy should pay 1/2 the amount since the jump was planned but the injury was not.

The policy should pay nothing since his jump was no accident. The injury does not matter.

The policy should pay nothing since it was still in the reinstatement phase.

Question 53 (1 point)

What type of disability automatically qualifies the insured for full benefits based on a permanent physical impairment which left the individual incapable of performing their previous occupation but allows them to perform other work?

Question 53 options:

Presumptive Disability

Permanent partial disability

Temporary total disability

Temporary partial disability

Question 54 (1 point)

Eric had a disability income policy with an "accidental means" definition. He jumped into a lake and broke his neck leaving him paralyzed. What course of action would the insurance company take?

Question 54 options:

- Pay the full amount, since Eric's accident was not planned
- Pay 1/2 the amount, since the jump was planned but the injury was not
- Pay nothing, his jump was no accident, the injury does not matter
- Pay nothing, since the policy was still in the reinstatement phase

Question 55 (1 point)

Which of the following may normally be used as a definition of total disability?

- I. House-confined
- II. Inability to perform the duties of any occupation
- III. Inability to perform the duties of the insured's own occupation

Question 55 options:

I only

I and II

II and III

I and III

Question 56 (1 point)

Regarding disability, a disability that is a permanent physical impairment leaving the individual incapable of performing the previous regular occupation, but capable of performing some other type of work, is:

Question 56 options:

Permanent total disability.

Permanent partial disability

Temporary total disability

Temporary partial disability

Question 57 (1 point)

Maria had a $1,000 per month disability policy with a benefit period to age 65 and a six-month waiting period. She became disabled at age 64 1/2. What would be the amount she receives?

Question 57 options:

$2,000

$1,000

$12,000

Nothing

Question 58 (1 point)

Dread disease, a travel accident, vision care, and hospital indemnity policies are all examples of:

Question 58 options:

LTC policies

Limited risk policies

Special risk

Blanket policies

Question 59 (1 point)

Ginny has a $50,000 accidental death and dismemberment policy. She received a $15,000 cash benefit for the accidental loss of one eye. The $15,000 benefit could be identified as the policy's _____.

Question 59 options:

principal sum secondary sum capital sum contingent amount

Question 60 (1 point)

If John has an AD&D policy, which plan will pay if he jumps off a ladder and severely injures his leg that it must be amputated?

Question 60 options:

Accidental results

Accidental means

Accidental measures

Accidental restitution

Question 61 (1 point)

A limited risk policy covers _____.

Question 61 options:

risks not covered by accident and health policies

specific risks

all risks

unusual types of risks

Question 62 (1 point)

Which of the following policies would cover an accidental death or injury while riding in a car?

Question 62 options:

Limited risk

Special risk

Dread disease

Long-term care

Question 63 (1 point)

Under the typical health insurance policy, which of the following would qualify as dismemberment?

- I. Taylor loses all the fingers on his left hand except the thumb.
- II. Jared, is right handed and permanently loses the use of his right hand and arm in an auto accident.

Question 63 options:

I only

II only

I and II

Neither I nor II

Question 64 (1 point)

Which is true about Part A of Medicare?

Question 64 options:

The insured must pay a premium.

The insured must pay a deductible.

The insured must pay a deductible and a premium.

The insured does not have to pay a deductible or a premium.

Question 65 (1 point)

Which of the following is NOT eligible for Medicare coverage?

Question 65 options:

People aged 65 and older eligible for Social Security

People aged 65 and older not eligible for Social Security, but willing to pay a monthly premium

People of any age who have been entitled to Social Security Disability benefits

People with any life-threatening condition

Question 66 (1 point)

Under Medicare Part B, which of the following do participants NOT have to pay?

Question 66 options:

An annual deductible

A per benefit deductible

20% of covered charges above the deductible

A monthly premium

Question 67 (1 point)

Which of the following groups is NOT eligible for Medicare coverage?

Question 67 options:

People aged 65 and older eligible for Social Security

People aged 65 and older not eligible for Social Security but willing to pay a monthly premium

People of any age who have been entitled to Social Security disability benefits

People with any life-threatening condition

Question 68 (1 point)

Select the answer that fills all three blanks correctly: The lifetime reserve for Medicare is _____ days. If a patient is hospitalized beyond the _____ lifetime reserve day, thereby exhausting the reserve, he/she is responsible for _____.

Question 68 options:

30 days, 30th, a portion of the hospital charges

60 days, 60th, all hospital charges

90 days, 90th, none of the hospital charges

120 days, 120th, 20% of the hospital charges

Question 69 (1 point)

Which part of Medicare requires premium payments by the most eligible participants?

Question 69 options:

Part A, basic hospital insurance

Part B, supplementary medical insurance

Respite care

All of the answer choices are correct.

Question 70 (1 point)

What is considered a moral hazard?

Question 70 options:

Age

Gender

Lifestyle

Occupation

Question 71 (1 point)

Which of the following factors is a primary risk factor in underwriting individual health insurance policies?

Question 71 options:

Geographical location

Salary requirements

Zip code of the insured

Physical condition

Question 72 (1 point)

Which of the following would probably NOT be considered in underwriting a health insurance risk?

Question 72 options:

An individual's avocations

An individual's age

An individual's sex – male or female

The address of the individual

Question 73 (1 point)

Which of the following is NOT a reason insurers use MCOs use for medical cost management?

Question 73 options:

Controls claims expenses

MCOs encourage overutilization by insureds

MCOs control how policyowners use their policy

MCOs seek to raise the cost for the insurer to provide better benefits for insureds

Question 74 (1 point)

All the following are true concerning chronic illnesses except:

Question 74 options:

Most people ignore chronic conditions and the pain they cause

A chronic condition frequently goes beyond being a nuisance and begins to inhibit a person's independence

Chronic conditions are can affect other parts of the body

Chronic conditions allow the body to fully recover and can be managed

Question 75 (1 point)

All of the following are true regarding Medicare supplement or Medigap policies except:

Question 75 options:

Medicare supplements are sold by private insurance companies.

Medicare supplements are the same as Medigap policies.

Medicare supplements pay costs for Part C & Part D.

It's best to have a Medicare Advantage plan and a Medigap plan combined for more benefits.

Question 76 (1 point)

With the exception of instances of legal incapacity, proof of loss for surgical expense benefits must be furnished to the insurance company within _____.

Question 76 options:

60 days

90 days

6 months

1 year

Question 77 (1 point)

Under a health policy, an insured is required to provide written proof of loss to the insurance company within a maximum of how many days after a loss?

Question 77 options:

60 days

90 days

20 days

30 days

Question 78 (1 point)

Given that a company can change premium rates on a class basis, a _____ health insurance policy will always be renewable until the insured reaches a certain age.

Question 78 options:

noncancellable

guaranteed renewable optional renewable cancellable

Question 79 (1 point)

Which of the following limits coverage under an insurance contract?

Question 79 options:

Waiver of premium

Conditions

Exclusions of declarations

20501

Question 80 (1 point)

Optional Provision on misstatement of age, permit the insurer to do which of the following?

Question 80 options:

The insurer will return premiums and cancel the policy

The agents commission is charged back and the policy is cancelled

The policy is cancelled and no return of premiums.

The insurer has the right to review the policy to determine what benefits would have been paid based on the actual age of the insured.

Question 81 (1 point)

Which occupational class identifies professionals and those in office settings?

Question 81 options:

A+

AAA

A

C

Question 82 (1 point)

Which of the following would exclude certain conditions from coverage under a health insurance policy?

Question 82 options:

Pre-existing conditions

Impairment rider

The insuring clause

The consideration clause

Question 83 (1 point)

Choose the option that is NOT a primary risk factor for underwriting individual health insurance policies?

Question 83 options:

Geographic location

Moral hazard

Profession

Physical condition

Question 84 (1 point)

A managed care organization uses all the following EXCEPT _____.

Question 84 options:

mandatory second opinions

precertification reviews

case management referrals

Question 85 (1 point)

Which factor would NOT affect a health insurance policy's premium?

Question 85 options:

An insured's age

An insured's occupation

The types of benefits provided

The location of the insured's residence

Question 86 (1 point)

To determine a medical tax deduction, _____ can be included as qualifying expenses.

Question 86 options:

premium contributions paid by the employer to a group medical expense plan premium contributions paid by the employer to a group disability plan premium contributions paid by the individual to a group medical expense plan premium contributions paid by the individual to a group disability plan

Question 87 (1 point)

Which of the following concerning group disability insurance is true?

I. Premiums are tax deductible by the employer, and benefits are taxable to the employee.

II. Premiums are not tax deductible by the employer, and the benefits are taxable to the employees.

III. Any amount contributed by the employee toward the premium makes the entire benefit tax free.

IV. The percentage contributed to the premium by the employee makes the same percentage deductible by the employer.

Question 87 options:

I

II

I & III

I & IV

Question 88 (1 point)

The CEO of a cruise ship line would like to purchase group health coverage for the cruise ship passengers. What kind of insurance would the CEO need to purchase?

Question 88 options:

Franchise health insurance

Wholesale health insurance

Blanket health insurance

Credit health insurance

Question 89 (1 point)

If an employee is terminated and entitled to extended medical expense coverage under COBRA which event is correct?

Question 89 options:

Employee dies – dependent family members receive 36 months of continued coverage

Employee dies – dependent family members receive 6 months of continued coverage

Employee dies – dependent family members receive 12 months of continued coverage

Employee dies – dependent family members receive 3 months of continued coverage

Question 90 (1 point)

In contributory group plan, the insurance company requires what percentage of eligible employees?

Question 90 options:

At least 25%

At least 50%

100%

Usually 75%

Question 91 (1 point)

Which of the following is NOT a method for keeping health insurance policy premium costs to a minimum?

Question 91 options:

Modifying benefit amounts

Increasing the deductible

Waiving the right to receive benefit payments when due

Extending the elimination

Question 92 (1 point)

A disability insurance policy that indemnifies the business for the lost services of a key person is called:

Question 92 options:

A cafeteria plan

Section 125 plan

Key person disability plan

Disability buy-out plan

Question 93 (1 point)

Mr. Jansen falls off a ladder at his boss' house. Which of the following plans will replace her income?

Question 93 options:

Key person disability insurance

Business Overhead Expense insurance

Disability buyout plan

Disability income

Question 94 (1 point)

A Business Continuation plan may include all of the following except:

Question 94 options:

Life insurance

Group insurance

Credit insurance

Disability insurance

Question 95 (1 point)

An individual major medical plan with a $1,000 individual deductible is going to cost _____ than a comparable plan with a $5,000 individual deductible; and a plan with an 80/20 coinsurance provision will cost _____ than a comparable plan with a 75/25 coinsurance provision.

Question 95 options:

more/more less/less less/more more/less

Question 96 (1 point)

A company that charges different premiums for people in the same actuarial class could be found guilty of _____.

Question 96 options:

twisting

unfair discrimination

segregation

unfair trade practices

Question 97 (1 point)

Which of the following would not be considered controlled business?

Question 97 options:

An agent writing business solely on his family

An agent writing business on his partner

An agent writing business on his employees

An agent writing business on his neighbor

Question 98 (1 point)

Who comprises the Financial Services Commission?

Question 98 options:

The Governor, CFO, Attorney General, & the Insurance Commissioner

The Governor, CFO, Attorney General, & the Agriculture Commissioner

The Governor, CFO, Insurance Commissioner, & the Agriculture Commissioner

The Governor, CFO, Insurance Commissioner, & the Speaker of the House

Question 99 (1 point)

What is the major difference between producers acting as agents and producers acting as brokers?

Question 99 options:

Agents represent the client, and brokers represent the company.

Brokers are not required to follow the same laws and regulations as agents.

Brokers represent the client, and agents represent the company.

Brokers cannot solicit prospects for the purpose of selling insurance.

Question 100 (1 point)

Which of the following statements concerning rebating is not correct?

Question 100 options:

The rebate must be available to all insureds in the same actuarial class.

The percentage of rebate cannot discriminate.

Rebates should be given to insureds who purchase a policy from an insurer that prohibits rebating.

Rebating is legal in Florida.

